

The Return of Cain

The oldest legend that we have of the Great Pyramid, is that it was built by Adam, Seth and Enoch before the Flood. It was built to house all the Antediluvian Wisdom, and preserve it through the flood. It also, I believe, was to house the bodies of Adam and Eve, as witness to this Wisdom and to the Creator (the Holy Mountain that Noah retrieved Adam's Body from in the Book of the Ed Bee).

It has been proven that the pyramid was built with the use of all the major sciences now known to man: Engineering, Astronomy, Trigonometry, Calculus, Geology and a host of others, including the Queen of the Science's - Eschatology, and the King of the Sciences - Theology. The pyramid is so precise and perfect, that even today, with our knowledge, we could not repeat the process and build another pyramid as perfect as this one.

Now, it is my belief that there was another Science employed, that we don't have a grasp on today, and that is the Science of Quantum Mechanics (actually it should be Quantum Physics). I believe that whoever built the pyramid, had a Working Knowledge of this Science, that was also employed in the pyramid.

It is probably this science, given enough time, that man would utilize to travel in time and space. This concept, by the way, is brought out in the movie StarGate, in which travel through the universe at impossible speeds is achieved through a circular 'gate', that just so happens to be housed in a pyramid. And it may even be possible that this is the means that we will end up traveling the universe in our glorified bodies, and populating them.

Now, lest you think that I am talking off the top of my head, it should be known that Einstein believed that the sheer size, shape and mass, of the pyramid, may make it possible to alter

Space and Time which is why some people call it a HyperDimensional Powerhouse. This would explain some of the 'occurrences' inside the pyramid that have given rise to the Pyramid Power Cult. And this may possibly be the 'god of fortresses' that the Antichrist worships.

Another interesting thing about the Pyramid, that is brought out by Northrop Frye in his book, "The Great Code" is that (the pyramid, as a type of) the City of God, would act as a Keep for Hell. Imprisoning the damned spirits-angelic and human- in Sheol, until the day of Judgment. Hence the words, "The Gates of Hell shall not prevail against it (The Church, or the City of God).

Now when I was in the military, there were several of us that would meet together for Bible studies etc. One time, we were trying to come up with 'models' of the Trinity.

There are several that occur in nature. For instance, the Universe is composed of: Matter, Space and Time. A Trinity. As well, Matter is composed of Solid, Liquid and Gas. Space is measured by Length, Width and Height and Time is measured by Past, Present and Future. So, you have a Trinity of Trinities, so to speak.

Around this time, one of our group had to go away for Tech School for the military. When he got back, he shared some interesting information that he had learned at School.

He learned that Triple Point is the Condition, at a specific Temperature and Pressure, where Water takes on the state of a Solid, Liquid and Gas all at the same time. To us, this supplied a near perfect 'model' for the Trinity. Father, Son and Spirit. Three individuals but one God. Water, Ice and Vapor. Three states, but one element.

Now, with this in mind, I will tie this series of posts together. And you should remember that our bodies are made up of 70% Water.

So Cain and his boys listed in Genesis enter the pyramid. The waters descend and he closes the door and locks it shut so no one can get in and then he waits.

Things are going along great, and he doesn't notice at first that things are becoming a little 'translucent'. He can 'hear' voices, and 'see' visions of battles and future, or past, history.

Then, the water rises enough, so that it starts pouring into the pyramid through the two 'air shafts' in the King's Chamber. Now, he has a problem.

At first it is slow, and the water is running down into the 'well of souls' in the basement of the pyramid. But soon it starts pouring in (salt water has been proven to have been present in the pyramid).

The food is spoiled, and he has to hike further up the pyramid. And even though the water is freezing, it has been forced by the barometric pressure, into a crevice in the basement, where it is being exposed to magma, causing steam to fill the pyramid, increasing the humidity and pressure.

The water keeps rising and soon he has retreated to the King's Chamber and now it is filling up rapidly. The heat and pressure is getting intense and must be excruciating.

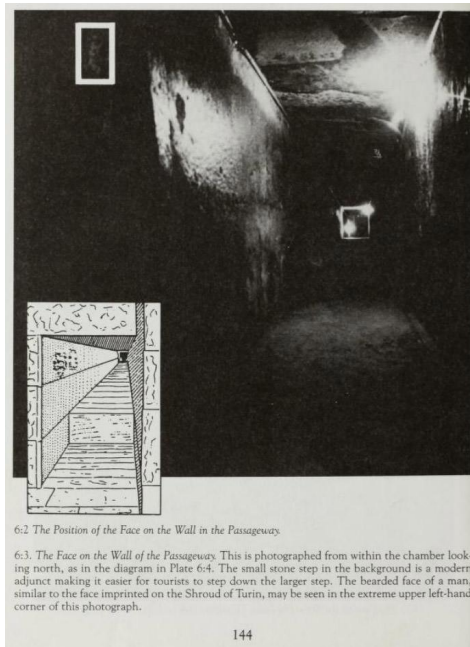

Around the time that conditions reach Triple Point in the Pyramid, the Body and Soul of Cain, are "Divided Asunder" from his Spirit because he is not in a glorified body.

They are blasted out of current space and time, to some point in the pyramid in the distant future. His spirit, like the damned antediluvian spirits, are sucked into hell by the watery vortex, thus fulfilling the prophecy that the beast arises from the Abyss.

This also explains why he is thrown alive into the lake of fire 1,000 years before anyone else - because he has already been judged.

And then, when his body and soul appear out of nowhere in the pyramid, his spirit will be unleashed from the abyss to reanimate his body.

And you have the return of Cain the Antichrist. And by the way, there is a chunk of the Coffin in the pyramid that is missing. It is assumed that this is a result of vandals. However, it could be the result of a human body blasting through a triple point.

The information that tipped me off to this theory is that there is a Face burned into the wall going into the Queen's Chamber in the Pyramid exactly like the image on the shroud of Turin.

Someone was in the pyramid when a tremendous amount of power was released and it left his face burned into the stone of the pyramid!

If the explosion was external, then it would have left a shadow on the wall. The fact that it left a negative on the individual's face indicates the source of energy was from the individual himself!

I did some further research and found that Isaiah may be referring to this very event (also chapter 30).

In the passage where Jesus coined the term "The Great Tribulation" (La Mega Tribos), he said it would be the worst time that the world has ever seen. Now, before the flood (I believe) Cain ruled the world, and Satan with him, in the form of a cursed serpent. So, if that is the case, then how could things possibly be worse than that? The only way that it could be worse is if Cain and Satan again rule this world, except with Satan in his original uncursed body.

This is what the Egyptian book of the dead is talking about when it describes the King Ascending up to the heavens (which the mythologies then interpreted to becoming a star). It is also portrayed in the movie StarGate, and also in "The Price of the Phoenix" a star trek novel, not to mention the song Kryptonite (I took a walk around the world to ease my troubled mind - Cain the vagabond after killing Abel; I left my body lying somewhere in the sands of time - at the time of the flood via the pyramid; you stumbled in and bumped your head etc - his boys).

I mentioned in that post that Cain may have been able to communicate his thoughts while still in the abyss and this is supported by Revelation where Satan is Chained and Bound and then has a seal put on top of him. This seal is to keep him from communicating his thoughts to people during the Millennium while still in the abyss.

Now, get this. The 'air shafts' in the King's chamber started lining up in 1997 (return of Cain Nisan of 98) and were fully lined up in 2004 - these are the very years that the Egyptian Antiquities shut down the entire Giza Complex during which they covered up the erosion of the Sphinx with a new cement Headdress and, reportedly, carved some tunnels in the pyramid itself. Point is, only they know for sure if anyone showed up at that time.

Now, Isaiah 14 and 30, I am convinced, talks of this very thing where a Young Lion and Old Lion and Viper and Seraphim, all coming up from the southland or Egypt where the pyramid is!

The viper is Cain and the Seraphim is Lucifer, so the question is , who are the lions? It may be possible that up to ten other individuals or even more) were in the pyramid with them. Remember both the Dragon and the Beast have Seven Heads and Ten horns. Might not the ten horns be the ten kings of the end times and the Seven Heads either Seven Fallen Angels like Lucifer or Seven of Cain's sons (or both)?

I realize that this is not easy to believe, but perhaps that is why it was called, "The strong delusion". I encourage people to go through the archives of this site and get my posts on the Mystery Religion and the Way of Cain, as it goes into this in more detail.

Editor's Note : September 18, 2007 : The reference for the picture of the face in the pyramid is actually the Book 5/5/2000 : Ice the Ultimate Disaster, by Richard Noone, Three Rivers Press, 1997.

The Return of Satan himself will be the result of his becoming immortal at the second battle for the Tree of Life in which he actually ate the tree, and then tried to regurgitate it which killed him by stabbing him in the heart which was mytholized into the fight between he and Anu in which he ate Anu's branch (not sexual organ) and which the South American Natives describe as being stabbed in the back by the Hero.

He was exiled on the penal colony on Mars at the pyramid in the form of a face and, eventually, a manned trip to Mars will free him which is stated, specifically, by Job when he said there were those who were ready to "raise up Leviathan." Because he became immortal and 'died' his DNA will be reset so that, when he comes back to life it will be as an uncursed Dragon.

The Revelation of Cain

Dec 11, 2013

Behold, you have driven me out this day from the face of the earth and from your face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth; and it shall come to pass, that every one that finds me will slay me. And Y'hava said unto him, Therefore whoever kills Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the LORD set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him...

I decided that I would compile all my information concerning Cain being the Antichrist, specifically as it matches perfectly with the predictions of the same. There is some new information here that many may not have seen before this.

As I have shown in previous posts, the only way that Cain could return to fulfill the prophecies is if he was sent through time via the pyramid. That being the case, while he was waiting for his body to reappear in our time, he would have been interned in the Abyss where, the Scripture makes clear, he is to rise out of (Rev 17:8).

There are two tests of Wisdom mentioned in Revelation, and the second one is just as important, if not more so, than the first test (note the "here is wisdom" of chapter 13 as opposed to "the mind that has wisdom" of chapter 17 both of which are in reference to the Antichrist who is the Beast and not his nation), and that is that the Antichrist, whoever he turns out to be, will ascend from the Abyss.

Regardless of how hard it may be to believe, the Beast, that is the Antichrist himself, was (used to exist before John's day) and is not (at the time John had the vision) and shall ascend out of the Abyss. This understanding of this first section is strengthened by the reference to "perdition", for the Antichrist is called "the son of perdition" (2 Thes 2:3).

You will notice that this statement occurs simultaneously with the beast's internment in the abyss. Hence, he does exist, just not in this dimension, whereas his kingdom, the Roman Empire, was in existence in this plane at the time the angel spoke those words to John. Compare this with Satan's internment in the abyss for the thousand years (Rev 20), where he exists for the same, and is then let out at the end, exactly as the beast is here. This shows the proper interpretation of the passage - that the Beast is referring to the Antichrist and not to his Kingdom.

In Genesis 3:15 it states that there would be enmity between Satan's seed and the woman's, which can only be fulfilled by Cain. Regardless of your opinion of the Zodiac, there is no doubt that whoever named them, and gave to them their original story, that the individual involved was intimately aware of the words in Gen 3:15 concerning the War of the Two Seeds.

The concept of crushing the head of the serpent is scattered throughout the story and this conflict is the main theme of the story. The other main theme, which is really inseparable from the first, is the redemption of mankind.

I believe Gog is a nickname which was given to Cain because he could not pronounce some guttural words correctly. This would, of course, make Cain literally the Chief Prince of Magog (Ezekiel 39), and the ancestor of the descendants of both Japheth and Ham who married wives from his ancestry as the name of their children implies, with 'Magog' meaning 'descendants of Gog' (the 'ma' is referring, I believe, to maternal) which we know is modern day Turkey.

This brings us to the rise of Cain in the end times coming from this country. The Scriptures tell us that he will be called the Assyrian (Is 14:25 etc), the Babylonian (Is 14 again and see also Is 23:13, Jer 50 etc), the Grecian (Daniel 8:9) and the Roman (Dan 2:33), all of which he could claim, as ancestor to all these peoples.

If you were to graph this on a map you would see that the territory that all these countries had in common was Turkey, Syria, Lebanon, Israel, Jordan and Egypt. These, then, provide us with the starting place. Further the Antichrist becomes strong towards "the east" which rules out Jordan,

"to the south" which rules out Egypt and "to the pleasant land" which rules out Lebanon and Israel (Dan 8:9).

Thus, we are now limited to the rise of the from Turkey or Syria alone. Thus, when we realize that Magog, Meschech and Tubal were all in Turkey (and Gog was actually the ruler of the same when Ezekiel wrote those words - Chapters 38-39), then the only conclusion that can be made is that the Antichrist rises to power at the start of the tribulation from the Nation of Turkey. This is very close to the Balkans (see my post on the Two Mountains of Brass).

This, by the way, does not necessarily mean that he is currently residing in that country, but may, for aught we know, be out with an "expeditionary force" anywhere in the world right now.

Cain would be the first and only one sired from the Archangel Satan. This would also make him diverse (Dan 7:7) from all other pre or post flood kings (as the other three beasts/kings obviously are - since he is a first generational man sired by the Archangel), especially in these end times.

This also brings up the very good possibility that Cain brought some of his boys with him through the Pyramid, making a 'team' of Seven Men Total (Rev 13 the Seven Heads) and thus the Ten Horns would be the Kings of the ten countries that make up the revived Roman Empire that I mentioned a short time ago. Cain, of course, would be in charge of this group ultimately, being the seed of Satan.

And, it is for this very reason that he "honors the god of forces" (Dan 11:38) which John tells us is the Dragon (Rev 13:4) his sire.

He does not worship the "Desirable Woman" (this is assuredly the correct interpretation of Dan 11:37 which, in context, is referring to polytheism and note that his "fathers" are not referring to paternity, but predecessors), which is referring to the worship of the Queen of Heaven that the ancient world fell into after the flood. He would consider this beneath himself for he is the "son of the morning star." Notice, by the way, that it does not say anywhere that he himself worships the Dragon, only that he honors it (the false prophet is responsible for leading the worship), and the possible reason can be found in Gen 4:7.

As well, Cain would not be of the accepted monarchies of Europe (as some people has stated concerning the "vile" one in Dan 11:21) and thus would need to take three of them out of the way (Dan 7:8) on his rise to power, probably in the first year of the tribulation (Rev 6:2) as the earthly counterpart to the rider on the White Horse.

Along these lines, Cain himself was the first one to make war with the Saints (Dan 7:21) when he killed Abel. His account of the death of Abel is actually contained in the Gilgamesh Epic (where Mesh is a suffix meaning Hero and the 'a' just ties the two words together leaving Gilg for his name and, with no vowels originally, you have Glg or Gog for the authorship of that Epic and the first Demagogue).

It says (Dan 7:25) that he shall speak great words against the Most High as if this individual personally knew Him which Cain did (Gen 4), before the flood. Even Hitler, the worst demagogue the modern world has seen, never came close to what the Antichrist will accomplish and thus can only be fulfilled by someone like Cain.

And, it is also for this very reason, as one who knows God personally (and perhaps saw the City of Eden or Heaven from a distance), that he actually tries to make war against Heaven by "imagining an evil device" against the Lord (Ps 21:11).

It says (Dan 8:10) that he was great even to the host of heaven and cast some of the hosts (which can only be the Angels or Glorified Saints) to the ground. This is impossible for a mortal man, but not for one sired by the Highest Archangel.

This event may very well be attempted through the pyramid itself or one like it, which explains the building of the original Tower in Babel (Gen 11:9), which itself was modeled after the Brick Pyramid that Satan and Cain built before the Flood (Josephus and Matthew 7:26), for this exact same reason (to fight against heaven).

The reason he will try to change the Times (Dan 7:25) is because he wants the calendar to be restored to the New Year beginning in the spring - his birth I believe and that specifically in 4182 BC. When the change was made to the Gregorian calendar, they moved the new year to January from April and he will seek to move it back, as any Monarch would at the start of his reign. Same with the Laws of the same verse (making him the Lawless One of 2 Thes 2:8).

He will want to institute his laws from before the flood which were basically Lawlessness as I posted a while ago. Basically they stated that no one could fulfill God's Just Laws so they shouldn't even try, and those who tried would be judged by him on the last day. There was more than this and perhaps I will try and find them, but for now it pretty much blows out of the water those people who are worried about the Noahic Laws being used to persecute people. They are tame compared to his laws.

He knows all the wisdom of the Antediluvian world including the stars and alphabet etc and will thus be able to understand Dark Sentences (Dan 8:23) and thus also, craft or inventions shall prosper in his hand (Dan 8:25).

Cain was the originator of cannibalism and lent his very name to that practice and it is this type of sacrifice that assuredly leads to the Abomination of Desolation (9:27).

Something else to think about is that the Deadly Wound (Rev 13:3, Zech 11:17) which he recovers from is portrayed in a lot of horror movies, but it is also true of the original ruler of pre flood Babylon, who was apparently 'killed' numerous times and then finally was supposedly killed by being ground to powder with a Millstone which was a primary symbol in their cosmology. And this die hard legend is hinted at in Gen 3:14-15.

This is much easier to believe when we realize that he was sired by the Highest Archangel, as compared with any human today and this is probably the reason for that recovery. However, as hinted at in the stars, it may be possible that Cain and his Men and even Satan fought a battle before the flood over the Tree of Life and possibly acquired some of that precious life giving fruit. This would explain how they could survive going through Triple Point in the Pyramid when they were sent through time, as well as this mortal head wound and also being cast alive into the Abyss (Rev 19:20), even though he is slain by the Glory of the Returning Lord (2 Thes 2:8).

The Name of Blasphemy

THE HEBREW ALPHABET

consists of 22 (2×11) letters, so the 5 finals were added to make up three series of 9, or 27 in all:

Aleph א = 1	Yod י = 10	Koph ק = 100
Beth ב = 2	Kaph כ = 20	Resh ר = 200
Gimel ג = 3	Lamed ל = 30	Shin ש = 300
Daleth ד = 4	Mem מ = 40	Tau ת = 400
He ה = 5	Nun נ = 50	Koph ך = 500
Vau ו = 6	Samech ס = 60	Mem ם = 600
Zayin ז = 7	Ayin ע = 70	Nun ן = 700
Cheth ח = 8	Pe פ = 80	Pe ף = 800
Teth ט = 9	Tsaddi צ = 90	Tsaddi ץ = 900

Finals.

The name "Kynabaalmerodach!" adds up to 666 (Rev 13:18) in the Hebrew. This "Name of Blaspheme" (Rev 13:1) would loosely mean "Cain the Son of the Highest" which he was not so that it is, literally, blaspheme, with Cain being his human name and Marduk being his Angelic name in reference to his lineage to Satan.

Qof, Ayin, Nun, Yod, Beit, Ayin, Lamed, Mem, Rosh, Daleph, Kaf, Ayin (1st) which is the name he is currently claiming for himself (i.e. the first King of Babylon). Normally, that final 'kaf' would be equal to about 500 but because he is specifying being the first King of Babylon, his name is followed by the capital 'l' removing that 'final kaf' thus rendering the exact amount as stated by the Scriptures 2,000 years ago. At the time of the Vision there were no spaces between letters or even words or sentences so this is how his name would be written and calculated.

The name itself is where the word cannibal comes from which Hislop said meant "priest of baal" but I think you can see that the definition I provide is more accurate and faithful to the original pre flood language of the Hebrew and thus fulfilling the Scriptural description of this name of blasphemy.

In the Scripture (1 John) where the term Antichrist was first coined, the Holy Spirit made it a point of mentioning Y'shua's name and Cain's name and no one else's name while expanding on the war between the two seeds (twice passing up dropping Abel's name). Knowing the precision of the Holy Spirit and of the Word of God then this hardly seems to be a coincidence.

If he is involved in military and politics now (for Turkey), he is assuredly using a pseudonym, and won't "be revealed" (1 Thes 2) as Cain until the Abomination of Desolation when his true nature and ancestry can no longer be concealed.

The Mark of the Beast (Rev 13:16), which is forced on the world by the False Prophet is assuredly drawn from the time that God marked Cain (Gen 4:15). It is highly likely, as well, that this mark was passed on through his lineage and there may be people today that bear it faintly. From what I have read and postulated on my own, it is an upside down thumb print size mark, centered above his right eye with 12 rays coming out of it, making it look like a rising Sun, showing his descendancy from Lucifer.

In his work, "The Antichrist," Arthur Pink takes many of the verses that refer to this individual and expounds them in his exhaustive work. I have skimmed through this work and present some of these same verses and how Cain fulfills them more than any other person (this is mostly new material and I also want to mention that Mr. Pink applied some verses to the Antichrist that are not speaking of him at all).

For instance, he tells us that in Psalms 52:1 he is called "The Mighty Man" but what Mr. Pink didn't realize is that this word 'mighty' is first used of those men who were sired by the fallen angels (Gen 6:4), something that has not occurred since the flood, when those same fallen angels were bound in "chains of darkness" until the day of judgment (2 Pet 2:4 and Jude 1:6). This alone strongly argues that the Antichrist must be someone who was born before the flood and sired by one of the fallen angels.

He reminds us that he is called the Son of Perdition who comes in by the Power of Satan (2 Thes 2:9), which is again indicative of the fact that he is Satan's son. This is emphasized by his other name as the Beast (Rev 13), for Satan himself was a Seraphim when he sired Cain (a serpent like angel with wings), before he was cursed (after he impregnated Eve - note the word "conceived" in Gen 4:1 simply means "was with child" in the original eyewitness account, or in other words, she was already pregnant).

Mr. Pink himself believed that the Antichrist would be the son of Satan, but the problem is that once Satan was cursed, it was impossible for him to sire any offspring from women and, therefore, if the Antichrist is going to be Satan's son, then there is only one contender and that is Cain, which means, as I have said, he must be back to fulfill all these prophecies.

This is not an exhaustive account of the Scriptural proof however, I think that you can now begin to see that Cain fulfills these predictions more than any other person that has been suggested to date. There is a lot of information that I am not sharing, that I can not share for various reasons, so this post will have to do for now.

I think that we can all safely assume that Cain is alive and well on planet earth.

Notes :

According to Scribner's Bible Dictionary, New York, 1900, Magog and Tubal and every other city identified in that passage are all located right in Turkey and, no matter how you look at it, the Antichrist will arise from that region. Period.

In a now defunct post I identified Gog as a nickname for Cain from before the flood - it is not recorded in any of the Biblical Genealogies and yet it was well known enough for Javan to use it in at least two of his offspring and, therefore, must have been an important person from before the flood.

It is where we get the word Demagogue from which is the same as a Demigod or half man half god or someone who was sired by one of the fallen angels as was Cain.

I typed this post up while homeless in Denver and around this time was when I was receiving emails from someone who hinted that he was the Antichrist and at the time he was working as a fireman in California and sent me a picture of himself and then, lo and behold, the very day before I posted the article above someone walks into the supper at the ministry that looked just like him and had a book entitled the Rising Son - this was a spook trying to get me to think that he was Cain.

Anyways, I later identified HM King Marduk I as Cain and tied him to the individual who was emailing me because a fireman over in Europe posted favorably of him using the same phrase Marduk used - On the Spot - meaning they were both the same person. Very possibly it was him.

I asked him when he got back (via the pyramid) and the date he gave was, basically, Nisan First 1998.

HM King Marduk I is the Antichrist and he is Cain.

The Eleventh Horn

I saw in the night visions, and behold a Fourth Beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had Ten Horns. I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man and a mouth speaking great things...

It appears that there is an individual who has found the Mother of all Loopholes.

Below are several extremely interesting articles that I pulled off the net (some of them were translated out of German by Google and subsequently 'polished' by myself so they may be subject to some minor error but, in all, should be faithful to the intent of the author).

Apparently, since the events of WWII (now is that prophetic or what) there were certain pieces of territory in Europe that lay unclaimed so this individual went and claimed them and now has authority over them. A similar situation occurred in America, when the States were formed out West where, even if a family had lived on the land for generations, if they did not go and file a claim to that land at the time of Statehood, then they stood in danger of losing said property to the person who subsequently did file a claim on that land. Further, this person has proclaimed himself King of this New Empire - which just happens to be located right in the middle of Europe.

This latter point is much more than significant in light of the verse at the top of the post for, as I have proven elsewhere, there are exactly Ten Monarchies in Europe (see the Dominicus College) who are assuredly the Ten Kings mentioned in that verse and now, it would appear, that we have just seen the beginning of the emergence of the Eleventh Horn.

Though, I originally believed that he would be from Turkey, and this may also still be the case in some way, from the verse above it is obvious that he starts his rise "among them" or literally from their midst - thus central Europe. Significantly, I might add, and strategically, right around Switzerland - where most of the World's Gold resides.

Other prophecies tell us that this Little Horn rises to power with a small people (Dan 11), and it would appear that this is the beginning of that fulfillment and, also significantly, in the same area that Hitler rose to power in.

Another prophecy states that he will come in "peaceably and obtain the Kingdom with flatteries" (Dan 11:21). If the preposition is not in the text then this means that he will obtain "a Kingdom" by flattery, which is exactly what this individual has done. The word means "smooth" and is referring to "smooth" words and, I would think that most people would agree that Lawyer's tongues are the smoothest of them all and, just like a lawyer, this individual has obtained a Kingdom on a Legal Technicality - but obtain it he has.

Places new meaning to the phrase - the Devil's Advocate, doesn't it?

This same verse calls him the "vile one" who rises to power in the place of the "raiser of taxes" (Daniel's Last Vision), and which some have suggested means that he will not be of the accepted Monarchies in Europe, which is also true of this individual. But, he is, in fact, a King of an Empire as the Word states.

There is one particular portion of land that he has laid claim to which I find extremely ominous and hard to believe and, if true - which I am having a hard time accepting - will assuredly rock this World to its core - and that is an understatement. All of this, of course, should be taken with a grain of Salt - to say the least - until proven, one way or another. I have sent an email out to one of the towns below and am waiting for a response.

But if true - well - the World is in for some very drastic changes and that very, very soon. This is made all the more ominous in reference to the day this became official - April 29, 2004 - in reference to my Editorial that day. The Sun was in Cetus - the Babylonian World Political System of the end days and the Moon in Hydra - the Babylonian World Religious System of the end days.

And, it appears that he has a bone to pick with the UN for some reason.

So, just who is this individual who found this loop hole and had the 'fortitude' to waltz right past the Nazi New World Order right into the middle of the New Europe and the Heart of the GeoReligiousPolitical World System and stake a claim - emphatically - and establish a New Kingdom with himself as King? Well, I would imagine that his choice of names would clear this up for us - and it should cause all people to wonder for Marduk is the god of Babylon (aka Merodach), as I have pointed out in my post on the Revelation of Cain.

And, just in case anyone missed it, this individual is not claiming to be the first King of the New Empire. This individual is claiming to be Marduke I, which has subsequently been verified by another one of his recent messages at the bottom of this page. In other words, he is claiming to be the original King of Babylon. I might add here that, his name King Marduk I, as stated in my post the Number of the Name, adds up to 658 and is only eight points away from adding up to the specified numerical value of 666, and bears watching for this reason alone (subsequently determined the exact total of his name below).

As he himself says - it would appear that there is New Management in town.

HM King Marduk I

In our times a new Kingdom of Marduk has been established. The founder, HM King Marduk I claims acceptance and registration by the United Nations. His Kingdom consists of different parts of land, mainly around Lake Constance : The former German enclave in Switzerland Verenahof, the German enclave in Switzerland Bon, Italian enclave in Switzerland Campione d'Italia, the Islands Mainau and Reichenau in Lake Constance, the Austrian enclave in Germany Jungholz, the Austrian Kleinwalsertal, the former enclave in Italy Seborga, Vatican City, the former Austrian enclave in Liechtenstein Balzers, Constance and Taegermoos near Lake Constance, and the enclave Lindau close to Lake Constance.

The self proclaimed King of Marduk claims all these pieces of land by saying they have not been mentioned in treaties after World War II that changed the situation in Central Europe. As a logical consequence those entities don't belong to the old Countries like Deutsches Reich, because the old entities don't exist anymore, and they don't even belong to the new entities like Bundesrepublik Deutschland, because they have not been mentioned in the treaties. As a result of this they don't belong to any other state or person, so according to international law anyone who wants can claim them - and he did!

THE UNITED NATIONS AND YOUR OWN CRIMINALITY

The King of Fierce Countenance

And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the Transgressors are come to the full, a King of fierce countenance, understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.

In the latter time of their Kingdom....

It appears that King Marduk decided to take the opportunity afforded by someone's reply to his official proclamation, to make several more proclamations on the Official UN Web Site.

I have edited his post below somewhat, so as to simplify it for the reader, and to cut to the chase, as it were, but the entire manuscript can be found on page three of my original Editorial on this subject which, as you all may know, was posted on the 1260th day from the Theoferrum.

When the transgressors have come to the full...

He has changed his original viewpoint and has decided that the US and the Vatican are part of the UN problem via Annan and seems to think that Annan will soon be leaving the UN. In fact, I get the impression that he knows more about this situation than most people do.

The significance of this particular proclamation is that he has now raised his sites from just the UN to include the US and the Vatican which, for all practical purposes, are the Pillars of the Western World.

I find this to be very ominous.

A King of fierce countenance...

He also made it a point of stating that he is exercising his Political Influence via contact with various official and important Nations in the World.

This tells me that, since my Editorial on this subject, he has had the opportunity to expand his Political Horizons in some way, which I was expecting.

Understanding dark sentences...

He also pointed out that the Russian Federation has no legal membership on the Security Council, and that the European Union is not a Legal National Entity and that none of the other five previously mentioned entities have any authority in the UN.

These latter proclamations tell me that some are raising quite a stink on this particular matter and that he has had to respond to their attempts to deprive him of his New Kingdom. And he has done so by stating emphatically that they, basically, don't have a legal leg to stand on - and Annan knows it.

Shall stand up...

And, so, just exactly what does all this mean? Well, if he is a nobody and is just full of hot air, then it means absolutely nothing and I have been wasting my time with this Editorial series.

If, however, he is the person described in the verse above, then it means everything, and all the parties above should seriously consider the rest of the verse I quoted, which is what I find very ominous.

And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practice, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people. And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many. He shall also stand up against the Prince of princes but he shall be broken without hand. And the vision of the Evening and the Morning which was told is true, therefore seal up the vision, for it shall be for many days...

H.M. King Marduk I 12/01/04

The World is officially notified of the State Kingdom of Marduk. The Kingdom of Marduk has International Diplomatic Relations with various important States of the World. The Kingdom of Marduk conducts its business with these international States.

We further officially proclaim that the United Nations is a criminal organization, which is under the dictatorship of the USA and the Vatican. We proclaim officially, that Annan is an international criminal and the henchman of USA and Vatican interests - and that the UN is an international criminal organization under Annan - this is a judicial irrevocable reality. Annan has in his person a fascistic criminal spirit, who refuses to accept additional States developing in the world. Annan is withholding his resignation proclamation as UN Secretary General. Annan is a major criminal person as is his son, who has arranged his criminal activity through the UN Organization.

The World knows that the former State of the USSR, since the year 1991, does not exist anymore as a Legal State, and therefore, the newly founded State Russian Federation does not have any representation in the UN security council; the Russian Federation is a totally new State creation, which no longer has the original rights of security council membership.

The Federal Republic of Germany has, since 1949, not a state, and is, since 1990, still not a state. The FRG is, since its accession in the UN on the basis of the UN Charta, a judicial illegality in the United Nations. The same situation applies to Austria since 1945 (which was not born in 1955 as a State); the judicial absolute reality is that Austria is an absolute state illegality. The same fraud applies in the 1948 criminal enterprise under the dictate of the Vatican when it founded the Republic of Italy. This is the same international fraud, which further applies to Vatican City itself, which is not a State, and has criminally arranged its international fraud via the Lateran Agreement in 1929. We further officially proclaim that the European Union is another criminal organization which is under the dictatorship of Pope John Paul II and his criminal Church background.

Annan is officially informed that the former FRG, Austria, Italy, Liechtenstein do not have, on basis of the UN Charta, any judicial legality as Member States in the UN, and Vatican City is no more than an Observer in the United Nations - none of the five have any legality in the United Nations.

The Kingdom of HM King Marduk I

Editor's Note June 20, 2005 : I got this letter today from HM King Marduk Ist and I figured I would post it on my Website to keep everyone up to date on the Newest Monarch and Kingdom in Europe. The letter below has been translated out of German and summarized by myself as it contained some redundant material which my readers don't need to know for the purposes of this series.

As my readers no doubt know, several years ago King Marduk waltzed into Europe and claimed several chunks of land and set up shop.

Well, of course he didn't do that because he wanted to go fishing on Lake Constance.

So now he is in the process of balancing his budget and he found out that the former authorities are still taxing his citizens and he ain't none to happy about it and has set the populous straight on that point and has pretty much told the former management that they owe him about four years of back taxes, with interest, which he plans on collecting.

He has also told his citizens that, in reality, their taxes should drop under his Sovereignty because he ain't planning on paying taxes to the corrupt European Union or the equally corrupt UN.

Oh yeah, I almost forgot.

Because it is in his Kingdom, he just laid claim to the most prosperous bank in Central Europe.

Way I figure it, this man went from pauper to multi-billionaire in less than four years.

Not bad huh?

Now, there are prophecies that talk about the Antichrist and there are prophecies that talk about the Male Child and, therefore, in order for both of these sets of prophecies to be fulfilled, both of these immortals have to live to enter into the tribulation.

But further, he and I already talked about this and he specifically asked me, via email, if I wanted to be the Antichrist and I specifically told him that at one time I told Abba that, if there was no one specifically set to be the Antichrist (I certainly did not want to be the Antichrist), that if he wanted me to, than I would offer myself as that person so as that no one else would have to be specifically condemned as that individual. I then told him that Abba made known to me that there was already someone for that position and it was not me.

To this Cain replied that he had met someone else who actually claimed to be the Antichrist and then Cain basically proved to that individual that, on the contrary, he definitely was not the Antichrist and that Cain himself was (I got the impression that this wanna be Antichrist ended up losing his marbles, in a manner of speaking).

The point is, in fact, that I know that I am the Male Child of the Apocalypse and Cain knows that he is the Antichrist and we both know that the prophecies concerning both must be, and will be, fulfilled during the tribulation and we are both aware of the fact that we will, in all probability, be meeting face to face during the tribulation.

The concluding proof, however, is in the names that we have both chosen for ourselves.

He has chosen the name HM King Marduk I as his title and, in so doing, he has claimed to be the original King of Babylon which, as you of course know, is the Antichristian Religion in the end days as described in Revelation 13, 17-18 and various passages in the Old Testament. This ought to be conclusive.

I have chosen my own name David which is described in Hosea, Jeremiah and Ezekiel as the Prince of the regathered Nation of Israel in the end days and into the Millennium and I have now added the suffix of Son of Y'shua ben Y'hava who, as you know, is the God of the Hebrew Christian Religion.

Further, anyone who claims physical descent from Y'shua, can hardly deny his existence in the next breath, which is what the definition of Antichrist is, for he would be destroying his own foundation.

OFFICIAL PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT 20 JUNE 2005

The Citizens of Kleinwalsertal Hello!

Citizens of the Kingdom of King Marduk

I must explain again the international laws of the past, for those who have been deceived since 1945; in reference to the country of Vorarlberg of Vienna; by the Vorarlberger criminal Government, criminal parliament etc., which have become adverse under the regime of Vorarlberg, though not existing since 1945.

Your population and businesses have stood, since the year 2001, in obligation or liability (it's up to you if they want to pay twice) exclusively only to the Country King cathedral of Marduk ? into irrevocable obligation.

The income taxes are taken by the country King Cathedral of Marduk by rights, with its business fortunes as well as private fortunes included.

Now one already explained, publicly in all respects before as well as again today , that Kleinwalsertal has become, since 8 April 2001, part of the zone of the State of UKCW however, through a donation contract, jurisdictionally irrevocable, the KWT as well as Boy Wood etc. as far as you're concerned, has become, irrevocably, part of the zone of the sovereign absolute monarchy country.

Walserin Beate Gruber is also, in all respects, aware of this, that they were transferred with inclusion of the KWT and thus, he has no authority over them.

Where the Walser fraud operated by the name of Werner Strohmaier previously, since 8.1.2001, its total income collected in private taxes are overdue and pay they will and must include all damages for this outrage.

The fascistful lying Lawyers in the KWT, in the words whispered in former times, know that, some truths are not, some need not, some must not, be stated in Kleinwalsertal publicly.

They know, simply, that there are those who always lead behind the scenes, so that the Sausgruber, Strohmaier, Vorarlberger government, its parliament, their parties etc. can continue to perpetrate this fraud.

Kleinwalsertal and the convenient population transfer thereof, since 8.4.2001, her clear nationality today belongs to the State of Kingdom OF Marduk, because its citizens were handed over. On the other hand the Vorarlbergers are, unfortunately, only pseudo citizens of the pseudo state of Austria, which alleged State of Austria, since 1945 on, is not Existent as a Legal State, and was adversely placed into the UN.

Now its head of state H.M. King Marduk I who has ensured for it that they have now, since 8.4.2001, clear facts managing, and the KWT has become for Bavaria, Vorarlberg, etc., like the European Union, a foreign country and a total European Union free zone.

The population locally, that is calling the Mayor Werner Strohmaier saying that they don't want it here, should know that he is, since 2001, set aside, because he did not have any say in the April 04 authentication, neither was there a local council present, neither a local administration (still another Vorarlberger institution) neither any national officials from the country of the VlbG. under the KWT authority, neither an Executive Branch, Legislative, or Judicial from Vorarlberg, Bavaria, Berlin, Vienna, Brussels - here the State of Kingdom OF Marduk can introduce itself - the KWT such as Young Wood stands under the administration of H.M. King Marduk I., which governs the KWT from its residence seat, int. legally governed.

King Marduk 1ST acts in all justice with democratic control.

And a terminating word to the Tussi Beate Gruber - who yet so prettily can smile, but who is so incorrect in his person, like Strohmaier and Co!

We do not need to be governed remotely by the EU which is only a constitutional fascist headquarters of the Vatican and its European interests.

Best greetings to KWT and always if you have any questions on this, please send letters directly to :

King Throne of Marduk ? Gov. P. O. B 1167,72001 T?ns [present residence seat / address of the Country Chief].

The Supplement enclosed is the documented acknowledgements with the receipt of the document by the Vorarlberger State Government, with its office stamp as of 29.5.01 confirmed, and with the office stamp of the Republic of Austria ? Federal Ministry of the Interior 1010 Vienna Gentlemen Lane 7 as of 11.11.02 and the inclusion of the diplomatic note 6.11.02 confirmed by the Ferrero-Waldner Cabinet including Sausgruber's acknowledgement.

Now they are happy over the situation and the Raibakwt has now become the Country Bank of the Country King Throne of Marduk!

HM King Marduk 1ST : Country Chief

The Mortal Head Wound?

Editor's Note : October 1, 2005 :

It was brought to my attention last night that, sometime shortly after I published the letter that King Marduk sent me, that some of the Insiders decided that they didn't like the fact that he laid claim to the most profitable bank in Central Europe, so they set out to take him out of the equation having the dual purpose of discrediting myself in the process.

I didn't think that they would be stupid enough to try this, after having read my posts on said individual, but today I went looking in the Headlines to see what I could find. The first thing I actually noticed was the Headline in the Australian called the Eternal Drifter, which I didn't connect to this subject at the time but now it seems much more than obvious however, this may have been posted yesterday before this subject was brought up - at least in my presence - but they themselves may have been kicking this subject around amongst themselves for a while and are the ones who brought it to my attention.

So, then I checked the contents and covers of Time magazine for the period in question as they certainly would have mentioned the event - my comments after the Headlines.

Before : Time July 18, 2005 :

Inside the Manhunt - following him around to set the trap
Mouse in Chief -they consider him a nobody amateur
The Man of Small Things - ditto
Rush Hour Terror - not just about the bombing in London
Deadly Commute - take him when he is enroute
A Jury of their Peers - he was found guilty by
Is this worth a Dam - possible location of disposal
Five History Books for the Beach - on the reservoir
He's having a Ball - sarcasm
We now pronounce you... - dead
Take the Money and Run - they want that bank back
Curiouser and Curiouser - unanswered questions
Sorry, No Miracle - he ain't gonna make it
Al's New Friends - possible signature of the event in question
The Death of a Diplomat - self explanatory
Why, That's Ridiculous - that he was immortal

After : Time July 25, 2005 :

On the Spot - three different periodicals
Tragic Magic - tranquilizer
Seven Sharpest Detectives - number of attackers
Future looks Grim, again - for him
The Best Defense is a good offense - as in, you're dead
Doctors Orders - came from the top
How the Tale Unfolds - we'll keep you posted
Unraveling the Plot - ditto
Unanswered Questions - who was that guy
You could lose an Eye - or more
Showdown - Insiders verses New King in Town
Feud - ditto
David's plea - as in 'oops I made a mistake'
When Denial can kill - made him an he refused
When a Governor shouldn't Moonlight - part of the set up
Road to recovery? - still nagged on their minds
Health Insurance - self explanatory
Rough Cut - ditto
Crossing the Pond - or reservoir Lake Constance
People to watch in International Business - not him anymore
Shutterbug Story - see next one
Sneak Peak at the Next Film - They video tape everything they do so that they can air it on some type of Insider Pay Per View Channel - that ain't no joke - how much do you think they had to pay to see the first plane hit the towers? Probably about a Million Ackers. This one was for free cause They Didn't Think that It Was Cain.

Now, none of the Headlines are really conclusive, either singularly or all together so I have no proof that this attempt was made on him at all. I checked my own Editorial page, to see what my enemies were up to at that time, and this was the time period when someone started sending me Coded Messages. The significance of this is that, if they 'killed' him, they may have tried to make contact with me, pretending to be him which I was contemplating on my way into the Library this morning, but I had forgotten about that little event.

So, it may be possible that they did, in fact, try to bump him off and, if so, they just called the curse of Cain down on their own heads which would be a very, very bad mistake. You know, the one about Payback being Sevenfold which may be a reference to the Tribulation actually.

Maybe the bomb blast in Bali is his signature. It has been three years since the Last Bomb went off in Bali, so it isn't a common occurrence. Bali means Ba'al which is Cain. Jimbaron, where one of the blasts occurred, is a Beach resort and in Hebrew would mean Baron of the Sea, or Lake (as in Constance) or Large River like De' Nile. They even have Jason (Roth?) Child telling it like it is.

It occurred near the Four Seasons Hotel (as in, Eternal Warrior and what goes around comes around), and it may be of some interest to find out who owns that ball and Chain. The second bomb occurred near Raja and in Hebrew would mean watering or moisture, poetically enough, and if you look a little further it means strife or conflict and to plead as in, he is making you an offer and you had better plead for your life. Its beach is called Kuta which means to enclose or surround which is kinda self explanatory, and is connected to Burnt Sacrifices. And, is that Cain's Boy mentioning success three times in one sentence?

I'm sure it's just a coincidence, nothing to worry about.

But somebody sure is worried.

Editor's Note : October 3, 2005 :

The first thing that needs to be stated is that all of this may have been an attempt by my enemies to pull the wool over my eyes. However, if that were the case then today they would have either hinted that they had succeeded in discrediting me, or they would have said that they had accepted this person as their long heralded Messiah. The fact that they did neither leads me to believe that this event did occur, that they went looking for the 'body' and couldn't find it (the term 'pit' as a reference to said location came up twice - once on the Australian, as you can see at the URLs below and the other in the Pit Bull that has just been nominated which I will have more on below), and this has resulted in a rethinking of their strategy realizing that the "Curtain was up on the Black Pool" season or episode, although some people think he might have "faked it".

Thus it is that two separate articles made mention of Adam where the first one is implying that this person may be Cain who was descended, "A little bit of the old Adam" since Eve was created from his rib. The second article, authored by Phillip Adam, picked up here and said that this was "God's Gift to Extremism", which can be interpreted two ways. Either, this is bad news for the Insiders and they should get rid of the guy, or this could be exactly what the New World Orderlies have been waiting for. In this case, I believe both are true.

This is indicated with some of them "Defying the Bombers" and the "Manhunt" that is now on for the Bali Bomber, echoing, exactly, the Manhunt recorded in Time (above) just before the event in question, though some of them think their "Defiant Optimism is Delusional".

And, so it is that the Game begins (I imagine some of those headlines also apply and I will check them out when I get time), with some people, I believe, cheering for this person because of their Changing Ideology and seeing him as "Africa's Finest on his way to the Olympics" and some against and this has left some people feeling a little Depressed, because this war is "Unwinnable and for no good reason", but others think this situation is "Perfection, with optional nightmare" or, in other words, its only a nightmare if you make it so cause in their opinion, they can't lose and this is the man they have been waiting for.

Though some are astounded at the events which has earned him a "Premiership" it hasn't made him the top "Kangaroo" (that would be Cain the Guru or Top Dog), or their Messiah, but he must prove himself in some way. And, specifically he must prove himself against his opposition, or those who tried to kill him or, the "Coach surviving with more helpers" and "Striking a Deal" and deciding upon taking a "Good Cop Bad Cop Stance" all of which means the Game is definitely afoot and the "Winner must be able to persuade his own side."

I have been accused of playing both sides so that they responded, "You can't live in safety if you cooperate with either side", to which I reply that I ain't cooperating with anyone other than Y'shua ben Y'hava and am solely "calling the shots" as I see them for everyone's benefit or amusement, as the case may be. After all, everyone knows I can no longer be an unbiased Editorialist so I am just hanging around in the bleachers with everyone else since there is a conflict of interest in several different areas now, which a simple reading of my Crest will easily verify.

I guess that makes me the undesignated Master of Ceremonies for this little 'game' huh. But you all are going to find out, some of you much too late, that it certainly is not a game. This will occur, approximately, when the Rider on the White Horse goes forth Conquering and to Conquer. Some of you will be under his feet in that little process.

Anyways, back to the task at hand. Those are the Headlines that seem to support this contention and now we can turn to Current Events. I want to say that, I don't know exactly how, but the events in Turkey and its bid to join the EU may be connected to this somehow, but that remains to be seen. But there is one current event that actually sheds some light on this and serves to illustrate my point.

You will see if you look at the news today that, right out of the blue and for no logical or apparent reason, Dubya decided that he would nominate Meir to the position of Judge, which came as a total surprise to everyone. I knew, as soon as I saw that, that he picked her because of her name. It is also much more than interesting that the person who supposedly suggested Meir is none other than Reid, whom I mentioned in that post on Symbols - see the cartoon.

Now, the point is there is no reason for him to choose Meir who is only a Lawyer and has never been a judge and, regardless of what some may say, there is a complete difference in the two. Reid's own reasoning is that he thought they should have someone who wasn't stuck in an office for the last several years, pushing paper which, to me, is a perfect description of a Lawyer, so I guess I fail to see his rationale in that statement.

Bush's own reasoning was that she would be better able to defend the Constitution than a Judge would be which, not only is an outright farce, it certainly doesn't make any sense to begin with. Now, all that said, I seriously doubt that they did this to continue a skam directed at myself, considering the importance of this position in the government and, since their own reasoning is unreasonable, then there must be another reason. That reason is in the name.

So, what's in a name?

Well, these people think that, via some type of mystical power in letters, symbols, words and specifically in names, that, if they can control this symbol, and arbitrarily apply it to another person, then they can control that person. This is actually a form of VooDoo, but that's another story.

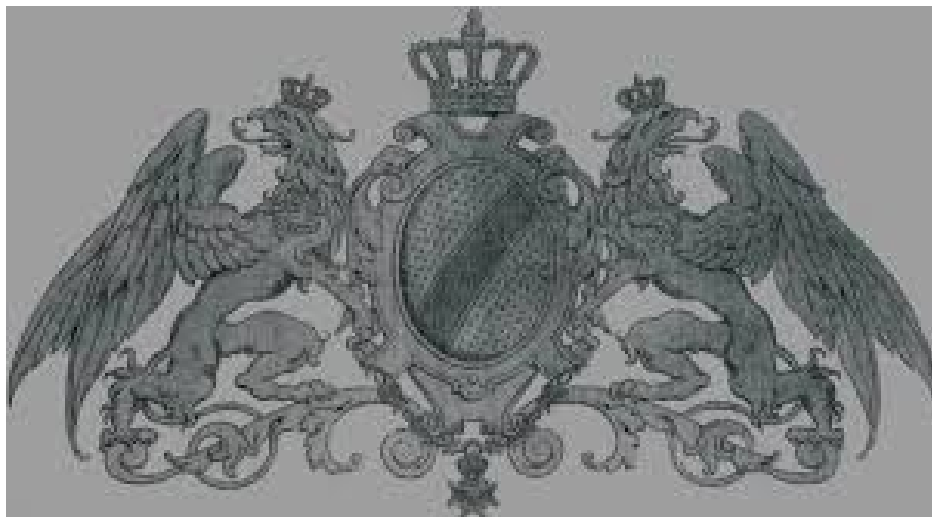

So, it just so happens that Meir is just another name for Mira or Mir which is the god of Babylon and is the prefix of the name Merodach (Duke of Mer) and Marduk (same thing) where Mer was the Spotted Dragon, the Morning Star which sired Cain who is otherwise known as Ba'al etc, all of which is explained further on this website.

Just like he tried to control me by nominating Roberts, he now believes that he can control Cain, by controlling Meir, just because it is a similar name to Mer. Or, more specifically, the person who gives him his orders believes this, whomever that may be (Rockerfeller).

Further, if you look at the timing of the announcement you will see that there is more to this than meets the eye. The announcement of the nomination was made two hours before Roberts' big day in court. Why would he want to overshadow his new boy's hour in the spotlight with the announcement of another judge, if not to put more emphasis on Meir than on Roberts. In their little world of symbolic power, this means they consider the individual above to be more of a threat and in need of control, then myself.

And that means that they believe the above individual to be very real.

The Crest of HM King Marduk I

Well, it would appear that King Marduk is still among the living as of January 12th, 2008, and now has his own website which I had been expecting a while ago but he had some things he apparently needed to take care of first.

<http://king-marduk.de/>

<http://www.state-union.us/seiten/Lindau%20Domain%20Stand%20anfang.htm>

Check out that Crest of his.

Is that a Griffin or is it a Dragon?

Interestingly enough, it is possible that the legends of the griffin are actually a result of dinosaur bones - a dragon - according to Wiki and it is actually compared with the Dragon when the front legs are also those of a Lion as in his Crest above and here we have the Feathered Serpent Dragon or what the Scriptures would call the Sereph - a flying fiery serpent.

Now, this is all important for a couple of reasons and the first is that the Roman Empire ceased using the Dragon as its symbol some time after the days of Julius and they started using the Double Headed Eagle when Esau took over the Roman Empire.

The point is that the Antichrist will honor the Dragon and lead the entire world into its worship so whatever Heraldic Crest he chooses to represent his empire it will positively include the Dragon and I would say, as of right now, that the Griffin Qualifies in this regard.

As far as the rest of his crest - I'm not sure about the 'demi' chevron on his crest but if you stand back it makes his entire crest look like an eye - as in the all seeing eye, etc.

The last major symbol that I need to look at as to how he understands it is the Maltese Cross at the bottom. You can see he may have patterned his crest from Genoa, but there are definite noticeable differences.

One of the reasons he chose this is because FireMen use the Maltese Cross and he was a, supposedly, fireman for awhile out here in California some time ago.

More Stout than his Fellows

Aug 12, 2014

Well, King Marduk finally posted a picture of himself and he looks similar to Chuni in Egypt (who I thought, originally, might be Cain) but not enough to be positive.

Stealth Mode

December 24, 2021 AD : So, I checked today as I was putting this PDF together and virtually all info on him has been removed from the net. To give you an indication of what I mean, my info on him has been on my website since I found him back in 2005 but none of my info comes up in a Google Search - what does that tell ya? Anyways, the picture above from his Facebook account was not there in 2014 so he posted it sometime after that.

Why the Boat?

Well, when he invaded Egypt, he did so by boat according to the Bilgamesh Epic.

I might be wrong but I suspect we haven't heard the last from Marduk yet...

Appendix

The Seed of the Serpent

I will put enmity between you and the woman and between your seed and her seed...

I think that, ultimately, my theory on Cain is dependent upon exactly what did, or did not, transpire in the Garden. As hard a subject that this is going to be to approach, it is part of the revealed Word of God; and I feel that it is time for it to be addressed. And, it will assuredly be playing an extremely and vitally important role in end times events, which is the climax of the above enmity between the two seeds. We can not afford to ignore the truth, regardless of how it makes us feel, if we are to 'rightly divide the Word of Truth' and teach the entire Word of God, and thus fulfill our commission, and responsibility to society.

Concerning the above verse; as a good Baptist, I always believed that Cain was Satan's 'spiritual' offspring as I was taught, and that Adam was his real father. I never questioned it, even though I had heard about the theory of him being the physical offspring of Satan. In fact, I did just come across this again, during the course of this study, and once again rejected it as too disgusting even to think about. As well, I also looked up the passage in question and read that "Adam knew Eve and she conceived." And that settles it, doesn't it?

One argument against this theory, by those who are uncomfortable with dealing with it, is that it is impossible for angels to mate with women. However, they have no proof of this from the Word and are basically skirting the issue. When it talks about the angels in heaven not marrying this is no proof that they are unable to, but solely that this does not take place in God's immediate presence, which is to be expected.

For those who believe the Word of God as I do, I would point out that, in all due respect, that they believe the KJV translation of the Word of God. For, that word 'conceive' in the original language, simply meant "Was with Child" and the alternate definitions ('conceived' and 'became pregnant') are more descriptive definitions that assuredly arose well after the fact and also well after Adam first penned this account.

Hence then, a very literal translation of the Hebrew text would be, "Adam knew Eve and she was with Child." I seriously doubt that even Eve was able to tell within one or two weeks whether or not any particular 'union' had actually born fruit. In fact, only God could know this, as the Psalmist and others tell us. Hence then this verse does not either prove or disprove either of the above theories and the truth must be gleaned from the rest of the passage and not one word out of one verse, regardless of what that truth turns out to be. For the Truth always brings liberty, one way or another and is not to be feared, or concealed.

For those who wish to remain standing on the spiritual seed aspect, they need to take a look at the definition of the word seed in order to strengthen their position - that is if they truly care about what the Word of God says.

I actually haven't looked up the definition of that word, because it is defined for us in Genesis, when God appointed each creature (including man) to contain the seed within itself. Hence, then a person is composed of a Body, a Mind and a Spirit and all three of these come to us through our parents. In fact, it is impossible for Satan to be the spiritual father of Cain and Adam to be the physical and mental father at the same time. It is, in fact, either one or the other. Either Satan is Cain's father, or Adam is. There is no in between.

With this knowledge, one would then have to retreat into the position that Cain was the spiritually adopted son of Satan, which is in direct contradiction to the definition of the word seed and also goes against the Marriage Covenant between Adam and Eve that was formed at that time.

And in fact, the verse at the top of this post, if it wasn't for pre-conceived theological prejudices and conclusions, is conclusive as to who Cain's father was. As I stated before, after this, Satan is cursed, and it would be impossible for him to sire any more offspring. And as well, after the flood, with the drastic decrease in barometric pressure, it is doubtful that any such union would be possible to bear fruit.

It has been stated by an author from Scribner's Bible Dictionary that, regardless of what we think, there is no doubt that the author of these chapters in Genesis expected his reader to believe that the fallen Angels had mated with women and this at once supports the position here.

But, all that we have to do is continue to read the Word of God and we will see, without forcing an interpretation, exactly what did transpire in the garden.

When God questions Eve about what transpired, she states that, "The Serpent Beguiled Me." Now, for those of us who are not fluent in 1611 King James English, whatever else this word may mean, if you look in a Strong's concordance, you will see that this word means 'seduced'. I think that we are all mature enough to know what the end goal of seduction is. This is the way of an oppressor, and has been, since the beginning.

Now, when Cain is born, Eve says, "I have gotten a Man from the Lord." In fact, she was relieved that it was a man that was born and not a serpent that crawls around on all fours, or that slithers on the ground.

The literal definition of the name 'Cain' is 'erect', in other words, a man that stands erect, instead of a serpent that crawls along on all fours or its belly. There is absolutely no other logical reason for her to name her first son this, unless in fact, she was worried about who the father was.

When we look at the 'enmity' in the above verse, we need to realize that this cursing of the serpent's seed was, in consistency with curses in general, a description of the result of a specific action, more than an empowerment of judgment.

In other words, it is a well known fact and recorded in the Word on a couple of occasions, that an illegitimate son will be at enmity with a legitimate son. The son of a forced union will hate the son of a union of love and vice versa. And, the forceful actions of Cain, pretty much go to show, exactly whose son he really was and also what his father was like.

Stranger than Fiction

And the LORD God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil: and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever. Therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from whence he was taken. So he drove out the man; and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden Cherubim, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life...

There is one final chapter that I want to include in my posts on Cain, who I feel is the Antichrist. This post is mostly sheer speculation, but the conclusions are drawn from a logical sequence of events as recorded in the Word, the ancient mythologies, the constellations and human nature in general, and they serve to answer some unresolved questions.

After the fall of man, as recorded above, the Lord set a couple of angels with flaming swords at the gate to the garden of Eden to keep the way of the Tree of Life. We know that God doesn't do anything haphazardly or arbitrarily, so an interesting question to ask yourself is why did He feel it was necessary to post a Guard around the Tree of Life.

The obvious reason is because He expected that at some time in the future, someone would try and get a hold of the fruit and eat it so that they could live forever.

I believe that this event actually did transpire, sometime before the flood, and it is obvious that Satan and his son Cain would have led the charge in this preflood war. Thus, when Y'shua said that he saw Satan as lightning fall from heaven, indicates that this very war did occur before the flood, though it is not specifically recorded in the Word.

This leaves open the possibility that he and Cain actually succeeded in acquiring some of the fruit, and thus became immortal. This would explain why, though he is slain by the Lord at His return, he is still cast alive into the lake of fire at the end of the tribulation. In fact, this is the only theory that does explain it.

This is supported by the mythologies which state that the king of Babylon could not be killed, but kept coming back to life. Sociologists will tell you that traditions usually start out with some basis in reality, and the Tree of Life would be the only thing that would explain this tradition. This would, of course, make traveling through the pyramid a much easier theory to believe and an event much easier to accomplish.

This war for the Tree of Life is also indicated by the constellations themselves where Hercules is guarding the tree of Life while he battles serpents and birds etc. We know that this typifies the Lord in the Garden, but it may be possible that this is actually a record of past events (as some of the constellations seem to be).

I don't know what importance, if any, this may have for any of the readers, but I thought that I should send it anyway. Some may sneer at this and find it impossible to believe, but if there really was a Tree of Life (which for the Bible believing Jew and Christian, there is no doubt concerning), then there remains no doubt that there was a war for the fruit thereof, and the only speculation would be whether or not any of the battles were successful. I believe that the circumstantial evidence shows that it was.

This theory also explains how the Antichrist could possibly receive a mortal head wound during the tribulation, yet live to tell about it, causing all the world to wonder after the Beast.

Sometimes truth is stranger than fiction.

The Antichrist's Arena

Son of man, set thy face against Gog, the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal and prophesy against him...

There have been many attempts to identify the Antichrist. in the Church's History and in these modern times. And as we proceed, there will be more and more.

We must keep one thing in mind and that is that the Lord stated that many False Christs would appear, and based on this he told us not to be deceived.

These words can be interpreted two ways. The obvious one is not to be deceived by any of these false Messiah's so that you won't be led astray.

The other, less obvious interpretation, is don't let these false Messiah's lead you astray so that you don't recognize the real Antichrist when he appears. If you do, while you are focusing on a False Messiah, you will be blindsided by the Antichrist when he starts his rise. This could have deadly consequences for those thus deceived.

Juan Carlos, JFK, Reagan, Gore and a host of others have been proposed. The most recent has been Prince Charles. I have already critiqued this book on the doves a few years ago when it first came out. I purchased the book and read through it, and I distinctly recall in the chapter on the calculation of his name, that the author admitted that he deviated from the rules of the Hebrew Gematria involved in order to add up the name. He said something to the effect that, 'because Hebrew is 2,000 yrs old and has been a dead language for so long, we have to make a modern application of this letter, as it is used now.' or something to that effect. If a person has the book, he should be able to find the statement in question very easily. And this makes the calculation useless as far as we are concerned. That it adds up in the English is of no use either because this was never an alpha-numeric system as the Greek and Hebrew.

Now, I have noticed that many people (that author included) explain away certain passages that are speaking of the Antichrist because it is detrimental to their theory on his identity. This means that they came up with the theory first and then interpreted the passages involved. This is bad policy when it comes to the Word.

Many scholars use Daniel 2 to prove that the Arena of the Rise of the Antichrist is the Geographical territory of the Roman Empire, which is correct. And with that information, we can look at the other Geographical Territories mentioned in the Word and connected to the Antichrist in order to narrow this down. And then, whoever the Antichrist turns out to be, we will know him immediately when he confirms the covenant, because we knew, literally, where to look.

The Assyrian

The prophet Isaiah (chapters 10,14,30-31,52) in these end times passages (easily determined from context) links the Antichrist to the ancient Assyrian Empire, and Hosea (11) and Micah (5) echo this connection. The Antichrist in the first half of the tribulation will be the Assyrian to the nation of Ephraim (also behemoth of Job).

The Babylonian

Isaiah also calls this individual the Babylonian (13,14 and 24). In fact, in 14:25 he links the Assyrian TO The Babylonian as the same individual. And this is confirmed by Jeremiah in 50-51. He will be the Babylonian to the Nation of Judah in the second half of the tribulation (Leviathan in Job).

The Little Horn

In Daniel 8, with as much authority as chapter 2, we see that the Antichrist must arise from the geographical territory of the Grecian Empire.

Note as well that this passage gives us the further details that he is a little horn (possibly a physical description) and that he waxes strong against the East (Mesopotamia) and the South (Egypt) and Israel (the pleasant land).

This chapter also talks about 1) The Last Days 2)Transgression (Abomination) of Desolation 3)Prince of Hosts (Y'shua) 4)Daily Sacrifices and thus proves that it is referring to the same individual as in Revelation and Daniel's Last Vision and is definitely referring to the Antichrist.

Now, if you take all of the above descriptions, and look at the land that is common to all those empires you will see that you are pretty much limited to Turkey, Syria, Israel and Egypt.

This last passage rules out the latter three and that leaves you with only Turkey as the location of the rise of the Antichrist. Turkey would be considered a small people as far as global influence at this time.

All this is proven by the verse that I started this post with. This verse is not referring to an invasion of Israel by Russia at the start of the tribulation, but it is referring to the invasion of Israel at the midpoint and end of the tribulation by the Antichrist, proven by the Feast for the Fowls of the Air (also compare 38:13 with Daniel 11:30 and compare 38:5 with Daniel 11:43 and also see my next post on Daniel for even more). And this proves, like the other geographic clues above, that the Antichrist rises to power in the ancient geographic territory of Magog - the Land of Gog.

Gog was actually a ruler at the time Ezekiel wrote those words and his kingdom was in western Turkey. Scribner's Bible Dict. of 1900 says, "The Hebrew name corresponds with that of the Lydian King who is called Gyges by the Greeks and Gugu in the cuneiform inscriptions. Gyges was the first King of W. Asia Minor. [Gomer] is the Gimirra of the Assyr. inscriptions, the Cimmerians of the Greeks. The Cimmerians were an Aryan people who inhabited the Crimea [Ukraine area around Black Sea] and adjoining districts of Southern Russia, and in the 7th century. B.C. poured through the Caucasus into W. Asia (Herod.IV.12). Gyges or Gugu, the Lydian King, sent an embassy to Nineveh for help. Phrygia had been occupied by them. Cappadocia had been so completely conquered by them as to bear hence forward among the Armenians the name of Gamir. The Cimmerians (Gomer) are included in the Army of Gog and as the invasion of Asia Minor by them brought about a great displacement of population, one result being the retreat of the Moschi and Tibareni (Meshech and Tubal) from Cappadocia to the shores of the Black Sea."

So here we see that the Geographic Territory of Gog, the Land of Magog, with Meshech and Tubal are all in Turkey. Note as well that Gomer is referring to Ukraine and is in submission to Gog (Turkey) at the time of the end. This shows the submission of Russia proper to Ukraine, and their submission to Turkey.

Togaramah "Of the North Quarters and his bands" can also now be identified with this information, for this is not specifically Russia itself. Togaraman is listed (chapter 27) along with Tubal and Meshech which we know is Turkey, so Togaramah is referring to a country along Turkey's Northern Flank or Border(both are specific definitions of 'quarters'). Their northernmost point is the Caucasus Mountain region containing Georgia, Azerbaijan and Armenia and would possibly include the very southern part of Russia.

The "many people with thee" (Gog) is thus referring to the rest of the European nations like Javan (Greece) which are Japheth's descendants. But notice, as well, that they are all in submission to Gog and not the other way around. Here we have a drastic change in the Geopolitical situation in the Eurasian Arena before the end of the tribulation. Keep in mind that the Euphrates River originates in Turkey, and this source is actually the area that the four angels are bound in Rev 7:1 and loosed in Rev 9:14.

Hence you have Gog (Antichrist) leading Magog, Meshech and Tubal (all in Turkey) and Gomar (Ukraine and some of Russia) and Togarmah (Georgia and parts of Russia) and Javan (and parts of E. Europe) in a coalition against Israel from mid tribulation to the end at Armageddon. Remember also that all others (i.e. the three previous beasts of Daniel seven) are trampled under foot by this confederacy.

This shows a revival of the Babylonian, Assyrian, Median Persian, Grecian and Roman Empires in these end days (proven by Daniel 2:35, for though the stone hits the feet, all these kingdoms are "Broken Together" by it). However, what it clearly also teaches is, in effect, a revival of the Ottoman Empire! [Wasn't even thinking about that at all.] Remember that Turkey is already a member of NATO. So, lets take a look at some current events.

A couple of years ago Israel and Turkey started forming a closer relationship. On May 15th on the shortwave I heard that Turkey considers itself the primary target (after Israel) of Iran's rocket program and that they should start counter measures (they made this decision based on Israeli intelligence).

Turkey just recently agreed to take over control of the International Security Force in Kabul starting this summer (about the time they got hit by an earthquake on Sunday), which decision was influenced greatly by the EU a couple of days ago.

Turkey and Europe are planning on building a tunnel under the Bosphorus starting next year like the Chunnel between England and the mainland (finished October 2013 AD).

They are set to join the EU (a must for everything I have said so far) next summer.

Short Wave rumor back in May was that they would join in the upcoming invasion of Iraq.

Turkey and Georgia and Azerbaijan have signed a Security Agreement against Terrorism specifically in reference to the pipeline that they are going to build between Azerbaijan and Turkey (this was signed at Trabzone).

The Bilgamesh Epic

May 14, 2019

Turns out that the original name for the Gilgamesh Epic (Cain's account of the death of Abel and the second battle for the Tree of Life) is actually Bilgamesh.

Not surprisingly, for those who believe me that Cain is the Antichrist and that the Land of Gog and Magog is Turkey, it turns out that the word Bilgamesh does, in fact, originate in Turkey.

Although the name Bilgamesh is not known as Turkish, the amazing thing is that both of these names (Bilgamesh and Gilgamesh) are Turkish and are from Turkish. In the epic story, the identities of the characters have been described in a way that explains the meaning of the character names in Turkish. For that reason I will give some background information from the epic story of Bilgamesh itself and also from other sources. But before that, let us learn about the word Bilgemish in Turkish.

The Turkish verb "Bilmek", meaning "to know", is the root word for the Turkish word Bilgemish. The stem of this word is "Bil" meaning "know". The modern Turkish term "Bilgemish" means "one who has become learned", "one who has become full of knowledge", "one who has become wise and acquired wisdom". Thus, "Bilgemish" is an adjective that can be used to describe a learned, knowledgeable and wise person. The hero of the Sumerian epic story "Bilgamesh" or its altered version of "Gilgamesh" was [described as] such a person, thus making the Turkish "Bilgemish" as old as the Sumerian "Bilgamesh" - and even earlier. In order to utilize a word such as "Bilgamesh" in an epic story, that word and the concept that it represents must have been known far earlier than the time that it was used in the epic story.

The story of Bilgamesh must have been composed and written at least 6,000 years ago.

Thus, we see in the Prologue of the epic story of Bilgamesh :

"O Bilgamesh, lord of Kullab, great is thy praise. This was the man to whom all things were known; this was the king who knew the countries of the world. He was wise, he saw mysteries and knew secret things, he brought us a tale of the days before the flood. He went on a long journey, was weary, worn-out with labor, and returned and engraved on a stone the whole story."

The Tongue of Angels

May 21, 2019

So, I just found out that the Gilgamesh Epic was originally written in Turkish and originally titled the Bilgamesh Epic (meaning the Man of Knowledge).

Problem is, that predates the confusion of the tongues at Babylon and the Flood as well.

So, is Turkish a Mystery Language?

The Tongue of the (fallen) Angels?

The Voynich Manuscript

When it comes, however, to a singularly indecipherable text, the Voynich Manuscript, the language it contains encodes the wisdom of a solitary intelligence, or an obscure, hermitic community that seems to have left no other trace behind.

Father Ahmet Ardiç, an electrical engineer by trade and scholar of Turkish language by passionate calling, claims the Voynich script is a kind of Old Turkic, “written in a ‘poetic’ style,” notes Nick Pelling at the site Cipher Mysteries, “that often displays ‘phonemic orthography,’” meaning the author spelled out words the way he, or she, heard them.

Ahmet noticed that the words often began with the same characters, then had different endings, a pattern that corresponds with the linguistic structure of Turkish. Furthermore, Ozan Ardiç informs us, the language of the Voynich has a “rhythmic structure,” a formal, poetic regularity.

Prominent Medieval scholar Lisa Fagin Davis, head of the Medieval Academy of America—who has herself cast doubt on another recent translation attempt—calls the Ardiçs’ work “one of the few solutions I’ve seen that is consistent, is repeatable, and results in sensical text.”

Sun-Language Theory

The Sun Language Theory (Turkish: Güneş Dil Teorisi) was a Turkish nationalist linguistic hypothesis developed in Turkey in the 1930s that proposed that all human languages are descendants of one proto-Turkic primal language. The theory proposed that because this primal language had close phonemic resemblances to Turkish, all other languages can essentially be traced back to Turkic roots. According to the theory, the Central Asian worshippers, who wanted to salute the omnipotence of the sun and its life-giving qualities, had done so by transforming their meaningless blabbering into a coherent set of ritual utterings, and language was born, hence the name.

Influences on the theory included the ideas of the French historian Hilaire de Barenton, expressed in "L'Origine des Langues, des Religions et des Peuples", that all languages originated from hieroglyphs and cuneiform used by Sumerians and a paper of the Austrian linguist Hermann F. Kvergić of Vienna entitled "La psychologie de quelques éléments des langues Turques" ("The Psychology of Some Elements of the Turkic Languages").

As described in a 1936 New York Times article on the curriculum of the newly opened School of Language, History and Geography of Ankara University, the theory, "claims that the Sumerians, being Turks, originating in Central Asia, all languages also consequently originated there and first used by the Turks."

The Turkish Apaches Mysteries

Based on the work of European linguists like Georges Dumézil on the Quechua, 'Turkic Origins' proponents point to similarities between some Turkish and Native American words, including 'ata' (father) and 'ana' (mother). The ancient Turks and Native Americans also share common spiritual practices: shamanism and the cult of the sun. Some authors also see parallels in myth and culture, including common motifs in carpets or similar kinds of music. DNA tests would serve to strengthen the hypothesis that Native Americans have Turkic origins, but so far it hasn't gained widespread acceptance among researchers.

Gobekli Tepe: The World's First Temple?

Six miles from Urfa, an ancient city in southeastern Turkey, Klaus Schmidt has made one of the most startling archeological discoveries of our time: massive carved stones crafted and arranged by prehistoric people who had not yet developed metal tools or even pottery. The megaliths predate Stonehenge. The place is called Gobekli Tepe, and Schmidt, a German archeologist who has been working here more than a decade, is convinced it's the site of the world's oldest temple.

Prehistoric people would have gazed upon herds of gazelle and other wild animals; gently flowing rivers, which attracted migrating geese and ducks; fruit and nut trees; and rippling fields of wild barley and wild wheat varieties such as emmer and einkorn. "This area was like a paradise," says Schmidt, a member of the German Archeological Institute. Indeed, Gobekli Tepe sits at the northern edge of the Fertile Crescent—an arc of mild climate and arable land from the Persian Gulf to present-day Lebanon, Israel, Jordan and Egypt—and would have attracted hunter-gatherers from Africa and the Levant. And partly because Schmidt has found no evidence that people permanently resided on the summit of Gobekli Tepe itself, he believes this was a place of worship on an unprecedented scale—humanity's first "cathedral on a hill."
